

Room 9

This semester we have all worked hard to develop our social skills both in the classroom and in the playground. Through science, art and cooking sessions we worked on following and giving instructions, by making different artwork and food items, and participating in experiments.

We enjoyed reading a variety of books, exploring different styles of writing, and playing with money and counters to develop and extend counting skills.

It has been a busy but fun semester in room 9!

