

A BIG HI FROM RC 4

Congratulations!!

All children from our room have done a great job settling into the group. They are learning communication skills, literacy & numeracy, Interpersonal skills and personal skills through range of fun activities and structure play experiences. It is Fantastic to see our children making progress every day!

